FINANCE DIRECTOR

As dean of the School of Business and professor of accounting at Grove City College, Michelle brings over 20 years of administrative expertise, institutional memory, and perspective to the CRM. As a native of western Pennsylvania, she has an appreciation for the region's family- and community-centered rootedness, small towns, and rural churches, and she understands the ebb and flow of life lived away from bustling urban centers and big cities.

She's been involved in rural church ministry and outreach from a very young age, serving in a variety of capacities as a lay leader, including children's, young adult, and adult ministries, and on the church council in administrative roles. She is excited about the opportunity the CRM presents for collaboration and engagement with the churches in the region, and is looking forward to working with pastors and lay leaders as we seek to serve Christ together through new initiatives.
