Garrett Heath

COMMUNICATIONS & MEDIA DIRECTOR

As the owner of Okiejoke Media, Garrett has worked as a filmmaker and photographer for various brands and institutions over the past decade. His past work includes documentary films, TV commercials, photography, and a variety of branded content across industries. He brings a passion for visual story-telling to his role as the Communications & Media Director at the CRM.

And as a western Pennsylvania native, Garrett has also served in different ministry roles in rural churches for most of his adult life. He's excited to use his skills in visual media to aid the ministry of the CRM and help further the Kingdom in rural churches.
